Imagination Kids

Summer Art Camp 2010

Famous Artists 6/24, 7/19

Experiment with the techniques and styles of several important artists.

- ~Create a personal art journal combining writing, painting & collage in the style of Sabrina Harrison
 - ~Cut Bristol board and metal to create a colorful and textured sculpture inspired by Frank Stella
 - ~Draw scenes from the Harlem Renaissance and paint them in the style of William H. Johnson
 - ~Discover the art of ornithology as you draw and paint bird species like John James Audubon
 - ~Learn techniques for creating the illusion of space as you paint a landscape inspired by Grandma Moses
- ~and more!

The Joy of Color 6/28, 7/26

Explore many different media as you delight in color, and learn a lot, too!

- ~Paint a color wheel (and even create an edible one) to learn about color mixing and color relationships
 - ~Create a non-representational work of art which explores the ways artists use color to express a mood
 - ~Experiment with colored acetate and glass beads to create a structural mobile with layers of colors
 - ~Learn about different color harmonies and create paintings & drawings using a limited color palette
 - ~Assemble transparent, opaque & iridized art glass to make a fused glass suncatcher or jewelry
- ~and more!

All camps are for kids ages 6 to 14, and limited to 7 campers per session.
